Section 2.2 Balance and Payment Terms. The Purchase Price is payable, together with interest on the unpaid principal balance at the rate of «HOA_Int» per annum, in 480 monthly installments of «P_I» per month (“Monthly Payment”), beginning on «Monthly_Payment» and continuing on the first day of each month thereafter until fully paid. The Monthly Payment shall amortize the Purchase Price over 40 years. Any late fees, interest or other past due charges which are not paid when due will be added to the Purchase Price. Past due principal and interest shall bear interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum from maturity until paid.

Section 2.3 Monthly Payment Components. The “Monthly Payment” consists of the following components:

- (a) the principal (amortized over 40 years) plus interest (plus a margin);

No endorsement or statement on any check, or any letter accompanying any check or payment as Monthly Payment or Additional Cost, will be deemed an accord and satisfaction. Section 5.4 Purchaser's Right to Cure — Sixty-Day Period. Purchaser shall have the right to cure such Event of Default and reinstate this Agreement at any time within sixty (60) days following the date on which the notice of default is served upon Purchaser pursuant to Section 5.3. Purchaser's right to cure arises upon receipt of the notice of default and expires at the close of the 60th day after the date such notice is given.

Section 5.5 Purchaser's Manner of Exercise of Cure Right. Purchaser may exercise Purchaser's right to cure as follows: (i) to cure a payment default, Purchaser shall tender to Seller, in immediately available funds, all delinquent amounts specified in the notice of default, together with any accrued late charges, documented attorney's fees, and any other amounts then due and owing under this Agreement; and (ii) to cure a non-payment default, Purchaser shall take all actions identified in the notice of default as necessary to remedy the violation and shall deliver to the Seller written evidence reasonably demonstrating that such cure has been completed. Purchaser's timely and complete performance of the foregoing cure obligations shall entitle Purchaser to reinstatement of this Agreement.

Section 5.6 Election to Proceed. If an Event of Default is not timely or fully cured, Seller may proceed with a trustee sale of the Purchaser's interest in the Property pursuant to Texas Property Code Sections 51.002 and 51.0021. The remaining balance of the total amount owed by Purchaser under this Agreement as of the date of the trustee sale shall constitute the debt amount for purposes of that sale.

The notice of sale shall include: (i) the date, time, and place of the proposed sale; (ii) a legal description of the Property; and (iii) a statement that the sale is for enforcement of this Agreement.

At any trustee sale conducted under this Article, Trustee's deed must: (i) convey to the foreclosure sale purchaser at such sale fee simple title to the Property; and (ii) warrant that the Property is free from any encumbrance. If the Property is sold pursuant to this Section 5.9, Purchaser or any person holding possession of the Property through Purchaser will immediately surrender possession of the Property to the purchaser at that sale. If possession is not surrendered, Purchaser or such person will be a Tenant at sufferance and may be removed by writ of possession or other court proceeding.

Section 5.9 Affidavit of Sale; Title Protection. The affidavit of a person knowledgeable of the facts, stating that the notice of default and notice of sale were given and that the trustee sale was conducted as provided by Texas Property Code Section 5.066, shall constitute prima facie evidence of those facts. A purchaser for value who relies on such an affidavit acquires title to the Property free and clear of this Agreement.

Section 5.10 Right to Reinstate After Acceleration. If Purchaser defaults and Seller moves forward with a trustee sale then the Purchaser shall have the right to full reinstatement of this Agreement upon, at any time prior to the trustee sale: (a) pays Seller all sums which then would be due under this Agreement as if no acceleration had occurred; (b) cures any default of any other covenants or agreements; and (c) pays all expenses incurred in enforcing this Agreement, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees, and other fees incurred for the purpose of protecting Seller's interest in the Property and rights under this agreement. Seller may require that Purchaser pay such reinstatement sums and expenses in one or more of the following forms, as selected by Seller: (a) cash, (b) money order, (c) certified check, bank check, treasurer's check or cashier's check, provided any such check is drawn upon an institution whose deposits are insured by a federal agency, instrumentality or entity or (d) Electronic Funds Transfer. Upon reinstatement by Purchaser, this Agreement and obligations secured hereby shall remain fully effective as if no acceleration had occurred.

Section 5.11 Attorney's Fees and Collection Costs. In the Event of Default, Purchaser shall pay to Seller, Seller's reasonable and actual attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by Seller in enforcement of any rights of Seller as well collection costs including any property inspection and valuation fees, and other fees incurred to protect Seller's interest in the Property. All attorney fees and collection costs shall be payable prior to Purchaser's being deemed to have cured any such default.

Section 5.12 Judicial Foreclosure. Seller hereby retains a vendor's lien upon the Property as security for the full payment of the unpaid contract price and all other amounts due under this Agreement, which lien shall remain in effect until all such obligations are fully satisfied.

As an alternative to the trustee sale process described in herein, upon the occurrence of any uncured Event of Default the Seller may, at its election, institute a suit in a court of competent jurisdiction to judicially foreclose the vendor's lien for the amount of the unpaid purchase price, together with accrued interest, costs, and reasonable attorney's fees to the extent permitted by applicable law. Any surplus proceeds from a court-ordered sale shall be disbursed to Purchaser, and any deficiency shall be governed by applicable Texas law. Seller's election to pursue judicial foreclosure shall not constitute a waiver of any other available remedy, and Seller may, prior to entry of a final judgment, withdraw such election and proceed as set forth otherwise in this Agreement provided no material prejudice results to Purchaser.

Section 5.13 No Waiver of Remedies. No failure or delay by Seller in exercising any right or remedy under this Article shall operate as a waiver thereof, and no single or partial exercise of any right or remedy shall preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or remedy. Furthermore, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to limit or restrict Seller's right to bring a legal action to recover any individual overdue installment payment or any other sum due and owing under this Agreement as of the date of such action, without acceleration of the entire unpaid balance. The bringing of any such action for an individual overdue installment or other amount shall not constitute, and shall not be construed to constitute, an election by Seller to waive or relinquish any right or remedy that Seller otherwise possesses at law or in equity with respect to any subsequent default by Purchaser. No failure or delay by Seller in exercising any such right or remedy shall operate as a waiver thereof, and no waiver of any particular default shall be construed as a waiver of any subsequent default. Furthermore, nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to limit or restrict Seller's right to seek specific performance, injunctive relief, or any other equitable or legal remedy to enforce any independent, non-monetary obligation of Purchaser under this Agreement. The pursuit of any such non-monetary enforcement action shall not constitute an election of remedies and shall not be construed as a waiver of Seller's right to subsequently pursue the foreclosure remedies available under Tex. Prop. Code § 5.066 or any subsequent or continuing default by Purchaser.
